

Two Roads Development Celebrates with Top Brokers by Awarding Commission Checks In-Advance of Ground Breaking

September 03, 2017 in Edgewater, Events, News

On Wednesday, August 30th, Two Roads Development, the developers of Elysee Miami, awarded nearly $400,000 in commission checks to the project's top-selling brokers in advance of its highly-anticipated groundbreaking this coming fall (2017). The check presentation took place at a special cocktail event at Elysee's sales gallery on Biscayne Boulevard. Notable guests included Two Roads Development's Reid Boren and Taylor Collins, as well as members of Cervera Real Estate's executive leadership team including Alicia Cervera Sr., Veronica Cervera Goeske, Alicia Cervera Lamadrid, Jesse Ottley and Ali Lamadrid. Set to rise along Biscayne Bay at 788 NE 23rd Street in Miami's East Edgewater neighborhood, the 57-story waterfront tower will feature 100 half-floor and full-floor residences priced from $1.5 million to $14 million. Cervera Real Estate are the exclusive sales team for Elysee.
