

Beau Raich named VP of acquisitions at Two Roads Development

Published at: 2018-04-10 16:19 | Author: CIJ USA

Beau Raich was named vice president of acquisitions and associate counsel of Two Roads Development. In this role, Raich will be taking on an active role in new business development. Prior to joining Two Roads Development, he was general counsel for SROA Capital, a West Palm Beach real estate investment company. He also worked for The Lynd Company, a Texas national real estate investment, development and property management firm.

“We are very pleased to have added an accomplished executive of the caliber of Beau Raich to our deep bench of senior talent at Two Roads Development,” said Reid Boren, managing partner of Two Roads Development. “Beau’s business entrepreneurship and legal background, coupled with his skilled detailed-oriented track record of success will only further our momentum in current and future real estate projects. His leadership will be extremely instrumental to our company, and we welcome him to the team.”